SAVES GIRL'S LIFE

Chris George's Chance Remark in Restaurant Leads to His Arrest -Chased Young Woman With

Mary Dolschick, 14gvears old, of No. 417
South Second street, in overhearing a remark made by Chris George yesterday, probably saved the life of Dena Siamenkiovits of No. 127 Spruce street, whom he said he was going to kill.

The girl was in a restaurant at No. 417
South Second street, when she overheard George say that he was going to the Siamenkiovitz home to kill Dena Siamenkiovitz, her husband, and Peter George. She told her story to Policemen A. Stangler and Chrismer of the Central District, who want in search of the man.

They met George coming from the Siamenkiovitz home. He was placed under arrest, and is now in the holdover pending an 'nvestigation. He lives at No. 30 Valentine street, and is 30 years old.

After his arrest it was learned that George had gone to the Siamenkiovitz home, and, with an open knife, had chased the young woman outdoors. She ran through a rear door and escaped.

FEDERAL ATTORNEY DENIES ALLEGATIONS OF PACKERS

Morrison Says They Were Not Prom leed Immunity for Testifying, and That to Documents Were Forcibly Seized.

Chicago. Nov. 28.—Unequivocal denials of the allegations of the packers in their special pleas, filed some time ago in the Beef Trust hearing, were made by United States District Attorpey Morrison in his reply, which he filed to-day.

The assertions of the packers that they were compelled to appear and testify, supplemented later by a more definite plea that they testified and were promised immunity from future prosecution, are declared by the District Attorney to be not founded on fact.

The charge that documentary evidence founded on fact.

The charge that documentary evidence was seized by force was also denied.

It is the expectation of the attorneys for the Government, and for the packers that the reply of District Attorney Morrison will raise issues of fact which must be tried before a jury.

YOUNG CHRISTIANS WILL CANVASS CITY IN QUEST OF THOSE WHO HAVE STRAYED TOO FAR FROM NARROW PATH

St. Louis Sunday-School Union Fostering Gigantic Enterprise Looking to the Reclamation of Former Christians Who Have Neglected Their Religion-Two Thousand Workers Will Visit Every House in the City and Urge Indifferent Ones to Renew Devotion to the Church-Ministers Confident of Satisfactory Results From the Proposed Two Days' Campaign.

The object of this enterprise is to gather in former Sunday-school attendants who have stayed away. A similar plan was tried in 1822 but after a few years was given up. The house-to-house canvass has met with such splendid results in other cities in recent years, however, that the local Sunday-school officials have concluded to revive it in St. Louis.

Elmer E. Lacey, secretary of the Sunday-school Union of St. Louis says that he expects an increase in attendance of from E to 25 per cent.

The recently secured the statistics on the attendance at the educational schools, both public and private. Said Mr. Lacy, and I find that about E per cent of the children of school age are attending Sunday school in St. Louis. I also learned
